HOW IT HAPPENED THAT THE SECESSION-

ISTS DID NOT TAKE LOUISVILLE .- The fact that Gen. Buckner did not take the city of Louisville, instead of stopping at Green river, where he invaded Kentucky on the line of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, is due not to any foresight or force of the United States authorities or of the Union men of Kentucky, but to the loyalty, courage and tact of one obscure individual The Secessionists had laid their plans to appear suddenly in Louisville with a powerful force. They had provided for transocomotives, and had eight thousand men, with artillery and camp equipage, on board. They had secured the services of the teleto Louisville a telegraphic dispatch ex-plaining the detention of trains on the road, and were moving forward at a grand Everything was going well with them, and Louisville, with perhaps the exception of a few Secessionists, was unsuspecting totally in the dark, and General Rousseau lingering in camp on the Indiana shore. requires the delivery of nearly fifty cords a day (Sundays excepted) for ten years.

In this extraordinary crisis, we deem it a luty we, your representatives, owe to you and ourselves, to say a few words to you, as to the condition of the Commonwealth. and the dnties we have been called upon to

We have ardently desired peace, and hoped to save Kentucky from the calamities When the Federal authorities deemed it necessary to employ force in self-defense, and to execute the laws of the Government, we assured our Southern neighbors of our purpose not to take up arms voluntarily against them, notwithtanding their wicked attempt to destroy the Government, from which we and our fathers have received the greatest benefits. Every effort was made, both before and after the employment of force, to effect some compromise and settlement that would restore the Union and prevent the effusion of blood.

The Federal Government did not insist upon our active aid in furnishing troops, reeming content if we obeyed the laws and executed them upon our own soil. Those engaged in rebellion, however, with hypopritical professions of friendship and respect, planted camps of soldiers all along our southern border; seized, by military power, the stock on our railroad within their reach, in defiance of chartered rights; impudently enlisted soldiers upon our soil for their camps, whom they estentatiously marched through our territory. They made constant raids into this State; robbed us of our property; insulted our people; seized some of our citizens, and carried them away, as prisoners, into the Confederate States. Our military was demoralized by the treachery of its chief officer in com-mand, and many of his snbordinates, until it became more an arm of the Confederate States than a Guard of the State of Kentucky. Thus exposed to wrongs and indignities, with no power prepared to prevent or resent them, some of the citizens of this State formed camps under the Federal Government, for the defense and protection of the State of Kentucky. Whatever might have been thought of the policy once, recent events have proved that they were formed none too soon.

In this condition we found Kentucky when the Legislature met, on the first Monday in September. We still hoped to avoid war on our own soil. We were met by assurances from the President of the Confederate States that our position should be respected; but the ink was scarcely dry with which the promise was written, when we were startled by the news that our soil was invaded, and towns in the southwest of our State occupied by Confederate armies. The Governor of Tennessee disavowed the act, and protested his innocence of it. His commissioners at Frankfort professed the same innocence of the admitted wrong; but our warnings to leave were only answered by another invasion in the sontheast of the State, and a still more direct and deadly assault upon the very heart of the State by way of the Nashville road. These sudden irruptions of such magnitude, skillfuliy directed, show that the assault on Kentncky was preconcerted, prepared and intended long before. The excuses made for any of them but add insult to injury. not repeat them. They are but excuses for acts intended, without any excuse.

The purpose is to remaye the theater of the war from the homes of those who wickedly originated it to those of Kentucky, and to involve this State in the rebellion. This purpose appeared to be well understood in he seconded States. They need the territory of Kentucky, and are determined to have it, if it must be by blood and conquest.

Thus forced into war, we had no choice out to call on the strong arms and brave hearts of Kentucky to expel the invader from our soil, and to call for the aid of the Federal Government, as we had a right to do under the Federal Constitution.

Our foes would dictate terms to a brave several days subsequently, heard the circumstances narrated there, and was told of them afterwards by Gen. Backner and other ranted rebellion, become accessory to their crimes, and consent to sacrifice the last hope of permanently upholding republican institutions, or meet their invasions as it ecomes Kentuckians.

We believe we have done our duty to a chivalric people, who have forborne long, but will never fail, as a last resort, to resent an injury and punish an insult. We should hold ourselves unworthy to represent you, if we had done less. The only error, wa fear is, that we have not been as prompt, you may think, as the coossion demanded.

COL. ORMSBY'S REGIMENT. To the Young Men of Kentucky

By the authority and for the service of the Government of the United States, I propose to organize in Kentucky a regiment of Infantry, to serve three years or during the war, to consist of ten companies, each company to contain not less than eightyfour, nor more than one hundred and four, rank and file.

Captains of companies will report to me at the Galt House, in Louisville, as scon as practicable. No company must be removed from its point of organization until ordered into camp. Transportation to the point of rendezvous will be farnished. None but active, vigorous men, and men of steady habits, will be received.

Pay will commence on the day of enlistment. Most of the gallant fellows who served with me in Mexico, are still able and willing, thank God! to bear arms for their country. Rally, freemen! Companies will go into camp immediately.

TELEGRAPHIC.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30 -A special dispatch from Cairo to the Times says: The rebels attempted to bur a the bridge one mile from Norfolk, this afternoon. They were met and repulsed by Capt. Noleman's cavalry. Three rebels were killed the first volley, others were killed and wounded afterwards.

One Federal was wounded. A wounded blls. krout, 5 casks of breakfast bacon, a rebel says as death was sure he may as well tell the truth; that he saw Pillow in Kentucky, back of Columbus Saturday morning with 27,000 men, and that Jeff Thomson's move- signment, by Clifford & Co., 226 Main ments are feints to divert attention from that quarter. I am convinced that the news yesterday at Paducah was that Pillew had left Columbus to effect a junction with the troops marching on Paducah from Tennessee. The united forces are 40,000.

New York Post says: Our troops across the Potomao are in fine spirits to-day. General McClellan is evidently taking such precautions as to ensure the success of any future move that he may make. The prominent positions at Munson's Hill, Falls Church and Upton's Hill, which were so suddenly evacuated by the enemy, have been strengthened by large bodies of Federal troops. Our men are now engaged in throwing up strong field works. The adhereby notified to meet me at the camp, on vance of our army is slow and continuous. It is believed here that the rebel forces are at twelve o'clock, and be ready to report the concentrated between Aquia creek and Manassas Junction, with their right wing on the Potomac. A messenger who has just arrived from Chain Bridge brings a just arrived from Chain Bridge brings a letter as early as possible. report that the enemy are in strong force at Leesburg and that the entire army has been divided, one division having taken position above Washington and the other below the city. The statement is hardly credible, but it is certain that important events are near at hand.

The people were panic-stricken at the news of business at the hour of four o'clock P. M. the defeat at Hatteras inlet. They declare for the purpose indicated ,in the foregoing that the number of rebel troops have been greatly exaggerated.

Washington, Sept. 29 — Our troops while occupying grounds vacated by the enemy have burned houses and destroyed property to a considerable extent. This will be investigated, as Gen. McClellan strongly condemned it.

The whereabouts of the enemy has not been discovered. Their pickets are discernable at distant points. Washington, Eept 30 .- Commissary Gen.

The position of the Federals is about the same as yesterday. It appears that they evacuated Falls Church yesterday; Federals is described for a copy of the manifest. eral pickets now occupy one end of the village, and the rebels the other, about one quarter of a mile apart. First rebel earth works are being thrown up.

Chicago. Sept. 30 — Special to the Chicago Tribune, Quincy, Sept. 30.—While there is much speculation concerning the strength of the two armies about to meet at Lexing ton, it may be interesting to state that a letter received by me to-day from Huntaville, Mo., dated Sept. 27, expresses confiletter received by me to-day from Huntville, Mo., dated Sept. 27, expresses confident opinion that Fremont will be beaten unless he can bring 50,000 men against Price. The writer says the country is filled with armed men marching day and night to reinforce Price. He is satisfied Mulligan's surrender added 25,000 to Price's strength. Everything reported quiet on the Hannibal and St. Joseph Reilroad.

Boston, Sept. 30—The second loan of $50,000,000 to the Government was considered to day at a meeting of Bank Presidents, and a resolution was unanimously lents, and a resolution was unanimously contained by the second loan of the second loans, and a resolution was unanimously dents, and a resolution was unanimously contained to the second loan of th
